Pre-Departure Orientations

EducationUSA is an organization sponsored by the U.S. Department of State.

The International Students and Scholars Office suggests attending a Pre-Departure Orientation Program to assist you with any questions or concerns you may have about the departure from your home country to the United States.

Find out when and where Pre-Departure Orientations will be held in your home country!
Applying for a Visa & Entering the U.S. – Important Facts

• You must use the appropriate forms (I-20 for F-1 visa or DS-2019 for J-1 visa) from UC Riverside to obtain your visa and to enter the United States.

• If you have an initial attendance I-20 or DS-2019 Form, you must enter the United States in the 30-day period before the program start date on your Form. You will not be allowed to enter if you arrive earlier.

• If you are entering the United States with an initial attendance I-20 or DS-2019 Form, you will be required to pay the SEVIS Fee before you apply for your visa. F-1 applicants pay $200 and J-1 visa applicants pay a $180 SEVIS fee. Please see the next page for further information.

• Do not enter the U.S. using a B-1/ B-2 (tourist) visa or visa waiver. You will not be able to change your status to F-1 or J-1 in the U.S.

• F-2 students are not able to pursue full time degree programs in the United States. Do not enter in F-2 status if you plan to be a full time degree-seeking student. If you are currently in the United States in F-2 status, you must file and be approved for a change of status to F-1 before the quarter begins in order to pursue a full time degree program. Please contact the International Students and Scholars Office at internationalcenter@ucr.edu or (951) 827-4113 for further information.

• Consulates require an in-person interview for most visa applicants. We recommend that you apply for a visa as far in advance as possible since visa issuance can sometimes take up to 3 months depending on the required security clearances. Please review the following information designed to assist you with the visa application process.
You will need to apply for a visa at the United States Consulate in your home country.

Please review the information about visa applications and fees at the Department of State’s website.

You will be required to present your Admissions Letter, your I-20 or DS-2019 Form, proof of financial support and a receipt for the SEVIS Fee (if applicable) when applying for a visa. Other items may also be requested. Be prepared to show that you have significant ties to your home country and that you will return there after completing your studies in the United States.

If you are preparing to study in a field that the consular officer may consider sensitive to the national security of the United States, please plan to apply for a visa well in advance and be prepared for potential delays. Students in fields such as biochemistry, cell & molecular biology and electrical engineering, for example, are sometimes subject to these security clearances. In our experience, students from the People’s Republic of China, India, and Iran are often subject to such clearances.
For students in F or J status and those changing to F or J:

Who has to pay the SEVIS fee?

If you are entering the United States with an initial attendance I-20 or DS-2019 Form, you will be required to pay the SEVIS Fee ($200 for F-1 students; $180 for J-1 students) before you apply for your visa or before you enter the United States (if a visa is not required).

If you are a non-immigrant transfer student with a transfer pending I-20 or DS-2019 Form, you do not have to pay the SEVIS fee.

If you are changing levels from one-degree to another at UCR, you do not have to pay the SEVIS Fee.

If you are changing status to F or J, you will be required to pay the SEVIS fee.

If you are out-of-status and reentering the United States with an initial attendance I-20 Form, you will be required to pay the SEVIS fee.

How do I pay the SEVIS Fee?

You must complete and submit Form I-901 with the appropriate payment.

The easiest way to pay the SEVIS Fee is online with a credit card at www.fmjfee.com. You must print out and keep your receipt. This proves that you have paid the SEVIS Fee.

You can also pay the SEVIS Fee by mail with a check or money order drawn on a U.S. bank and payable in U.S. dollars.

In some locations, you may be able to pay the fee through Western Union in local currency. You may find instructions here.

Questions? Ask us or review the frequently asked questions online.

Take your receipt with you when you apply for a visa and when you enter the United States. You cannot pay the SEVIS fee at the border or at the airport when you arrive.
SEVIS Transfer: F-1 & J-1 Students

Are you currently in the United States?
Do you need to transfer your SEVIS Record to UC Riverside?

If you are currently in the United States at another institution (high school, college, language program, etc.), and coming to UCR as a visa student in F or J immigration status, you must complete a SEVIS transfer. In order to start this process, the international student advisor at your current school must verify your immigration status. This verification can be completed by following the steps outlined below.

F-1 Students:
Ask your international student advisor to “release” your SEVIS record to the University of California, Riverside. Please notify the Graduate Admissions Office (grdadmis@ucr.edu) of your SEVIS record “release date”. Once your record is released and you have met all other admissions requirements, the Graduate Admissions Office will issue you a “transfer pending” SEVIS I-20. If you will be traveling over the break, make sure to communicate with your academic department regarding the pick up or mailing of your transfer pending I-20.

J-1 Students:
Ask your international student advisor to “release” your SEVIS record to the University of California, Riverside. Please notify the International Students and Scholars Office of your SEVIS record “release date”. Once your record is released and you have met all other admissions requirements, the International Students and Scholars Office will issue you a SEVIS DS-2019. If you plan to travel internationally before classes begin, please consult with an international student advisor at the International Students and Scholars Office. You may contact our office at internationalcenter@ucr.edu.
Contracts and leases are binding documents. It is important to read and understand the details of a contract or lease prior to signing it. There may be strict penalties associated with cancelling a contract or lease.

We encourage you to review the International Student Handbook and review the “What You Need to Know Before Renting an Apartment” article (Chapter 8) for further information and guidance.

All international students are required to have medical insurance. You will be enrolled in a UCR policy and the fee for the insurance is included in your quarterly fee statement.

Medical Insurance coverage for incoming international students in F & J status will begin on September 7, 2016.

If you are arriving before September 7, 2016, we recommend that you purchase short-term temporary insurance to cover the period of time before September 7th.

UCR may accept medical insurance coverage from an outside agency if the coverage meets UCR requirements. However, you must apply for a waiver immediately. Do not purchase health insurance in your home country without first contacting the Student Health Office.

NOTE: J-1 students and their dependents must carry health insurance that meets the U.S. Department of State requirements at all times.

Waivers will be available online in June. You may review waiver policy information on the Insurance website.

For any questions regarding the waiver policy, contact the Student Insurance Office at (951) 827-5683 or send your email message to: marsha.tolson@ucr.edu, or visit the web site at http://www.campushealth.ucr.edu. The Student Insurance Office is located on the 2nd floor of the Student Services Building, in room 2221.
You may be required to have certain Health Immunizations either prior to your arrival or upon arrival.

Please review the Immunizations page of the Student Health Services website for details.

Email: health@ucr.edu
You must bring enough money to pay University fees (tuition, fees, and health insurance) move-in costs for housing and other expenses. You can find more information on university fees here.

You may pay your University fees online with a credit card, but keep in mind that the University only accepts certain types of credit cards. For online payment with Growl, Visa cards are NOT accepted. Growl only accepts Discover, MasterCard, and American Express.

Please see the UCR website for more information. We recommend bringing travelers checks in U.S. dollars. For other expenses credit cards will be very useful. Do not bring a check or draft in foreign currency, even from a non-California bank, since access to your money will be restricted for up to one month until the check is cleared. This is also true for any wire transfers as you will not have immediate access to the money.

“Late” fees are not charged for your first quarter of enrollment, however, if you continue your studies at UCR for more than 1 term, make sure that you note payment deadlines on the UCR Calendar in order to avoid late fees and/or having your classes being dropped.

Your first quarter fees must be paid in full by the end of the third week (10/14) or your student status will lapse and you will be dropped from all of your courses. Do not wait until the deadline to pay your fees; make sure to pay your fees as soon as possible to avoid lapsing.
• All incoming international students should arrive by Wednesday, September 7, 2016.

• If you have an initial attendance I-20 or DS-2019, please check the start date on your I-20/DS-2019 before making any travel plans. The earliest you may apply for entry to the U.S. is 30 days prior to your start date.

• If you have a transfer pending I-20 or DS-2019, you are not restricted to the 30 day rule.

Make sure to have the following documents with you upon entry:

1. Your original form I-20 or DS-2019
2. Your passport with valid F-1 or J-1 visa
3. Your original admission letter to UCR
4. A copy of your paid SEVIS fee receipt

Riverside, CA  92507
(951) 827-3854
http://cdc.ucr.edu/
allan.crosthwaite@ucr.edu

The Child Development Center at UC Riverside accepts children from age 2 months through five years of age (Kindergarten).

Immunization records are required. Please see the information under school-age children. The waiting list can be one year or longer so contact them as soon as possible if you need child care.
School-Age Children

For families with school-age children, ages 5-18, bring all previous academic records, original and English translation, and any records of immunization issued through the World Health Organization (WHO), or you can get records from your private physician.

Children in Day Care Centers and preschool must also show records of immunization. Before your child can be enrolled in an American school, records of immunization have to be shown, or the child will have to get the required inoculations again.
International Peer Advising Team

Every year we have a group of dedicated students volunteering to help you. One of the members of our IPA Team will be contacting you soon to say hello.
Friendship Family Program connects students with a UC Riverside Faculty or Staff family for an exchange of culture. Students are not expected to live with their friendship family; unlike a homestay program, the Friendship Family Program is designed for both parties to meet once each month for an activity of their choice, based on mutual interest and need (e.g. dinner, Thanksgiving Day, exploring Riverside).

Global Connections Partner Program pairs international students with a trained peer in order to facilitate international friendships and foster a mutual exchange of culture and language. GCP partners are selected based upon mutual hobbies or areas of interest; new partners are matched each term.

International Discussion Group is a weekly program of informal discussion that covers a wide range of topics. Discussion topics stem from relevant local and world news stories, hot university issues, and the personal inquiries and interests of the group. Examples of previous topics include cultural adjustment, the impact of stereotypes, holiday traditions across the globe, second language acquisition and study preparation techniques.

International Spouses & Partners Program is a free program designed to provide spouses and partners of all nationalities an opportunity to exchange friendships, culture and ideas. Students, spouses and children are welcome to participate.

Information regarding further activities will be provided at Orientation and in weekly emails!
